IBM is a vendor - competing for information technology business - across the Federal Government, including the Legislative, Executive and Judicial branches, as well as independent establishments and government corporations. Our contracts are numerous and vary at any given time. IBM's federal business has been awarded a number of federal contracts since October 1, 2009, as either a prime or subcontractor. These contracts were principally for IT-related services and, in total, represent less than 4% of IBM's 2011 revenue

7. Signature: Date: 7/24/12
