1 Q You did not call Mr. Iglesias to see what had
2 triggered this sudden lack of confidence, correct?

3 A I wouldn't necessarily call it "sudden lack of
4 confidence."

5 Q Well, the first time it was expressed to you.

6 A Expressed to me, but I didn't have --

7 Q Had he ever expressed that before?

8 A No, I didn't have any particular memory of him
9 expressing that to anybody else before.

10 Q And did you examine the files of anything going on
11 in New Mexico at that time to see what might have triggered
12 this lack of confidence that was expressed to you by the 13 Senator?

14 A No, I did not.

15 Q And you don't recall any specific conversation with 16 the Attorney General or with Mr. Sampson following this call.

17 A I don't recall a specific conversation, no.

18 Q So then I ask you, did you take any actions
19 following the call from Senator Domenici acting on what you
20 say was a significant development?

21 A I don't recall doing anything in the following
22 month that was sort of an investigative nature associated
23 with those concerns expressed.

24 Q As you sit here today, you believe that Mr.
25 Iglesias' name was mentioned to you when Mr. Elston gave you

1 a list of names from Mr. Sampson, correct?

2 A Uh-huh.

3 Q And you didn't object to his being on that list.

4 A I did not object, no.

5 Q And was your lack of objection predicated in part
6 based on the call you had received from Senator Domenici?

7 A That was a significant factor in my thinking as to
8 not -- as to why I did not object, yes.
