POLITICAL NEWS AND NOTES, WEEK OF APRIL 24 – MAY 1

Primary Elections This Week:

Voters will go to the polls Tuesday, May 2, for primary elections in Indiana, North Carolina, and Ohio. While most primaries are uncontested, Secretary of State Ken Blackwell (R) and Attorney General Jim Petro (R) will face off in the hard-fought Ohio gubernatorial primary. The winner will go on to face Democrat Ted Strickland in November.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer and Columbus Dispatch both released polls this weekend. In both polls, Blackwell leads Petro by double-digits. Boosted by evangelical support, Blackwell leads by 21 points (50% to 29%) in the Plain Dealer poll, and by 12 points in the Dispatch poll.

Senate:

Arizona

Arizona State University and KAET-TV released a new poll (4/20-4/23) on Tuesday showing Sen. Jon Kyl (R) leading Jim Pederson (D) 42% to 31% (+11). Last October, Kyl led Pederson 50% to 28% (+22).

Pederson launched a new television ad campaign this week attacking Kyl's immigration plan as unrealistic for assuming illegal immigrants will turn themselves in; Kyl responded with an ad defending his commitment to border security while pointing out Pederson's inconsistencies on this issue.

Florida

A new Strategic Vision poll (4/21-4/23) was released on Wednesday, showing Rep. Katherine Harris (R) leading by just a 38% to 21% (+17) margin among Republican primary voters against her potential opponent, Speaker Allan Bense. In general election match-ups, Sen. Bill Nelson leads Harris 56% to 24%, (-32) while Nelson's lead shrinks to 47% to 36% (-11) when paired against Bense. This numbers are good news for Bense as he is relatively unknown outside Florida's panhandle.

This week, Gov. Jeb Bush (R) said Bense "would be a great US Senator," fueling speculation Bense will enter the race.

Maryland

Voter/Consumer Research fielded a poll this week for Lt. Gov. Michael Steele (R). Democrats lead 50% to 28% (-22) on the generic ballot, but Steele maintains a generally positive 48/24 favorable/unfavorable image ratio. When paired against Democratic candidates, however, Steele trails former Rep. Kweisi Mfume 45% to 42%, (-3) and trails Rep. Ben Cardin 49% to 37% (-12). Among Democratic primary voters, Mfume and Cardin are essentially tied at 27% and 24%, respectively.

Montana

Sen. Conrad Burns's campaign finished a survey on Friday showing him ahead of State Senate President Jon Tester by two points, 39% to 37% (+2), but trailing State Auditor John Morrison, 37% to 38% (-1). This is a significant improvement for Burns, whose previous poll showed him down 10 points to Morrison and six points to Tester.

Democrats may have erred in attacking Burns so early in the cycle over his alleged dealings with Jack Abramoff.

Ohio

The Cleveland Plain Dealer released a Mason-Dixon poll on Sunday, conducted from April 24 to 26, showing Sen. Mike DeWine leading Rep. Sherrod Brown 47% to 36% (+11). DeWine's poll last week showed the Senator leading by three points, but also under 50%.

New Jersey

Quinnipiac University released a new poll on Thursday (4/18-4/24) showing Sen. Bob Menendez (D) leading State Sen. Thomas Kean, Jr. (R), 40% to 34% (-6). The race has remained essentially unchanged since Quinnipiac's March poll, when Menendez led 40% to 36% (-4).

Pennsylvania

On Wednesday, Muhlenberg College and the Allentown Morning Call released a new poll (4/17-4/24) showing Sen. Rick Santorum (R) narrowing the gap with Bob Casey, Jr. to eight points, 38% to 46%. In March, Santorum trailed by twelve, 37% to 49%.

Rhode Island

Sec. of State Matt Brown (D) dropped out of the Senate race on Wednesday, citing financial difficulties. Brown endorsed the only remaining Democratic candidate, State Attorney General Sheldon Whitehouse.

Brown's exit from the race is expected to help Sen. Lincoln Chafee (R), who faces a tough primary challenger from Cranston Mayor Stephen Laffey (R).

With an uncontested Democratic primary, experts expect more Democratic voters will switch their party registration to independent and vote in the Republican primary, boosting support for the often-heterodox Chafee. Chafee's only chance of survival is to convince a significant number of Independents to vote in the GOP primary.

Washington

A new Strategic Vision poll (4/21-4/23) showed Sen. Maria Cantwell (D) leading businessman Mike McGavick (R) by a 48% to 40% margin (-8). The race is essentially unchanged from March, when Cantwell led 49% to 39% (-10), but Cantwell's inability to break 50% underscores her continued vulnerability.

In a blow to Cantwell, the 38,000 member-Washington Federation of State Employees declined to endorse Cantwell this week, instead asking to meet with both her and McGavick at a future date.

House

National Overview

According to a report released by the non-partisan Campaign Finance Institute on Wednesday, Republican incumbents in competitive races hold an average lead of more than $220,000 over their Democrat counterparts. (see below chart).

Year Avg	GOP CoH Avg.	Dem CoH Avg.	GOP Adv. (+/-)
2006	$865,068	$644,646	+$220,422
2004	$581,317	$572,192	+$9,125
2002	$506,008	$461,611	+$44,397
2000	$484,785	$500,182	- $ 15,397

CA-50

Lake Research Partners released a poll (4/18-4/20) on Tuesday showing Brian Bilbray (R) essentially tied with Francine Busby (D) among likely June 6th run-off voters. This race is expected to remain close and difficult to hold for Republicans if defeated special election candidate Eric Roach (R) decides to enter the general election primary.

Roach spent Wednesday meeting with conservative leaders in Washington and is soon expected to announce he will enter the race. Owing to Roach's expected announcement, the DCCC has put up ads in the district, hoping to exploit the Republican split to Busby's advantage.

MN-06

State Rep. Phil Krinkie (R) announced on Monday he would join State Sen. Michelle Bachmann (R), State Rep. Jim Knoblach (R), and businessman Jay Esmay (R) in signing a pledge to abide by the results of the party nominating convention on May 6. Last week, rumors circulated Krinkie would ignore the party endorsement and seek the nomination in the September primary.

MN-08

The Duluth News-Tribune reported on Thursday that former Sen. Rod Grams (R) is considering challenging Rep. Jim Oberstar (D) for the Eighth District congressional seat. Grams says he will make a decision "in the next week or two" about whether to enter the race. Grams is meeting with Political Affairs staff this Monday.

NH-02

Rep. Charlie Bass's campaign fielded a poll this week. The generic ballot is essentially tied, and Bass leads Democratic challenger Paul Hodes 51% to 34% (+17). Hodes is still relatively unknown in the district even after running against Bass in 2004, but Bass's 57/33 favorable/unfavorable rating shows he remains in a strong position to be re-elected.

NV-03

President Bush visited Las Vegas this Monday to campaign for Rep. Jon Porter (R). The event raised $440,000 for Porter, who will likely face Tessa Hafen (D), former Press Secretary to Senate Minority Leader Reid.

NY-20

The Union College student newspaper, the Concordiensis, reported on Thursday that Rep. John Sweeney (R) attended an on-campus fraternity party last weekend. Students at the party took a number of pictures with Sweeney and described him as "acting openly intoxicated," slurring his words, and cursing loudly. Sweeney has denied that he was drunk or even consumed alcohol at the party.

Despite winning in 2004 with 66% of the vote in a district the President carried with 54%, Sweeney faces a tough challenge this year from attorney Kirstin Gillibrand (D).

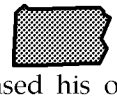
NY-29

Iraq veteran Eric Massa (D) released a poll on Thursday, showing him trailing Rep. Randy Kuhl (R) by just three points, 40% to 43%.

PA-08

The campaign of Iraq war veteran Patrick Murphy (D) released a poll on Tuesday, showing Rep. Mike Fitzpatrick (R) leading Murphy 49% to 35% (+14).

PA-10



Democratic challenger Chris Carney released his own internal poll on Tuesday (4/20-4/23), showing him trailing Rep. Don Sherwood (R) by just six points, 43% to 49%.

WI-08

On Thursday, the Mellman Group (D) released a poll they conducted from 3/22 to 3/26 for an unknown client. The poll found State Assembly Speaker John Gard (R) leading Steve Kagen (D) 38% to 32% (+6), and Gard leading Jamie Wall (D) 39% to 30% (+9). However, the poll also showed former Brown County Executive Nancy Nusbaum (D) leading Gard 43% to 38% (-5). The WI primary is September 12.

WV-01

Tuesday's Wall Street Journal detailed the continued investigation into questionable ethics practices by Rep. Alan Mollohan (D), former ranking member of the House Ethics Committee. The article revealed Mollohan jointly bought a 300-acre farm on West Virginia's Cheat River with a defense contractor whose firm won a $2.1 million contract from money Mollohan had added to a spending bill. The FBI also announced on Friday it will be issuing subpoenas for financial records to three non-profits started by Mollohan and funded by federal appropriations he steered their way.

Mollohan is being challenged by Del. Chris Wakim (R).

Governor

Alabama

The University of South Alabama conducted two polls last week (4/15-4/20), one each of GOP and Democratic primary voters. The GOP poll found incumbent Gov. Bob Riley comfortably leading former Judge Roy Moore, 64% to 20% (+44).

The Democratic poll found Lt. Gov. Lucy Baxley narrowly leading former Gov. Don Siegelman 39% to 34% (+5), despite the fact Siegelman will go to trial in less than two weeks on federal racketeering charges.

Florida

According to a new Strategic Vision poll, Charlie Crist leads Tom Gallagher among GOP primary voters, 47% to 35% (+12), and Rep. Jim Davis leads State Sen. Rod Smith among Democratic primary voters 44% to 21% (+23). Both primaries are essentially unchanged since Strategic Vision's March poll.

In general election match-ups, Crist leads Davis 46% to 39% (+7, down from +9 in March), and he leads Smith 49% to 33% (+16, up from +14 in March).

Gallagher leads Davis 44% to 40% (+4, down from +7 in March), while he leads Smith 44% to 35% (+9, down from +12 in March).

Iowa

Democratic candidates Chet Culver (D) and Mike Blouin (D) held their first debate this week to dismal reviews from pundits, who described the two as "fumbling around" and un-gubernatorial. Culver and Blouin will compete in the June 6 primary to face the better-financed Rep. Jim Nussle (R) in November

Maryland

Voter/Consumer Research's survey for the Steele campaign this week showed Baltimore Mayor Martin O'Malley (D) leading Gov. Bob Ehrlich (R) by a 52% to 40% margin (-12).

Montgomery County Executive Doug Duncan (D) announced on Thursday his choice of former Baltimore State's Attorney Stuart Simms as his running mate. Both Duncan and O'Malley have now selected their running mates, both of whom are African-American.

Pennsylvania

The Muhlenberg College/Allentown Morning Call poll released Wednesday found Gov. Ed Rendell (D) leading Lynn Swann (R) by a 45% to 39% (-6, down from -3 in March).

The article revealed Mollohan jointly bought a 300-acre farm on West Virginia's Cheat River with a defense contractor whose firm won a $2.1 million contract from money Mollohan had added to a spending bill. The FBI also announced on Friday it will be issuing subpoenas for financial records to three non-profits started by Mollohan and funded by federal appropriations he steered their way.

Mollohan is being challenged by Del. Chris Wakim (R).

Governor

Alabama

The University of South Alabama conducted two polls last week (4/15-4/20), one each of GOP and Democratic primary voters. The GOP poll found incumbent Gov. Bob Riley comfortably leading former Judge Roy Moore, 64% to 20% (+44).

The Democratic poll found Lt. Gov. Lucy Baxley narrowly leading former Gov. Don Siegelman 39% to 34% (+5), despite the fact Siegelman will go to trial in less than two weeks on federal racketeering charges.

Florida

According to a new Strategic Vision poll, Charlie Crist leads Tom Gallagher among GOP primary voters, 47% to 35% (+12), and Rep. Jim Davis leads State Sen. Rod Smith among Democratic primary voters 44% to 21% (+23). Both primaries are essentially unchanged since Strategic Vision's March poll.

In general election match-ups, Crist leads Davis 46% to 39% (+7, down from +9 in March), and he leads Smith 49% to 33% (+16, up from +14 in March).

Gallagher leads Davis 44% to 40% (+4, down from +7 in March), while he leads Smith 44% to 35% (+9, down from +12 in March).

Iowa

Democratic candidates Chet Culver (D) and Mike Blouin (D) held their first debate this week to dismal reviews from pundits, who described the two as "fumbling around" and un-gubernatorial. Culver and Blouin will compete in the June 6 primary to face the better-financed Rep. Jim Nussle (R) in November

Maryland

Voter/Consumer Research's survey for the Steele campaign this week showed Baltimore Mayor Martin O'Malley (D) leading Gov. Bob Ehrlich (R) by a 52% to 40% margin (-12).

Montgomery County Executive Doug Duncan (D) announced on Thursday his choice of former Baltimore State's Attorney Stuart Simms as his running mate. Both Duncan and O'Malley have now selected their running mates, both of whom are African-American.

Pennsylvania

The Muhlenberg College/Allentown Morning Call poll released Wednesday found Gov. Ed Rendell (D) leading Lynn Swann (R) by a 45% to 39% (-6, down from -3 in March).

All yours – obviously the sooner we can wrap this up the better, but understand we have a lot going on.

Good work on the Background information, and just some clarification needed on the Political stuff.

Scott – assuming you gave us the heads up about the National Committeewoman being a possible PPO nomination?

2006 – GOVERNOR BOB RILEY (R) UP

ALABAMA BRIEFING

STATE ISSUES
EMPLOYMENT FIGURESAs of February 2006, Alabama's unemployment rate was 3.6 percent, 2.1 percent below its peak of 5.7 percent in November 2003. As of March, the national unemployment rate was 4.7 percent.

K A T R I N A H E A L T H C A R E
R E I M B U R S E M E N T
On March 28, Governor Bob Riley (R) announced that the Federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services has approved a the state's plan to reimburse Alabama health care providers for assistance to Hurricane Katrina victims. Under the plan, up to $5 million will be provided for Alabama Medicaid to reimburse doctors, hospitals, pharmacies, clinics, nursing homes, and other health care providers for medically necessary services they provided during the period from August 24, 2005, to January 31, 2006, to individuals displaced by Katrina. Patients must have been without private insurance or any other health care coverage for treatment provided from August 24 to January 31 to qualify.

STATE LEGISLATURE
Abortion Ban
Before the legislative session ended on April 17, athe State Senate Judiciary Committee held a public hearing on a bill that would have prohibited virtually all abortions in the state, including in cases of rape and incest; only extreme abortions performed when cases to protect the life of the mother is in danger would be exempted from the ban. The bill is expected to come up again for discussion again next year.

Unborn Child Sentencing Law
On April 17, Governor Riley signed into law the a bill into law allowing state prosecutors to press two charges against someone who injures or kills a pregnant woman. Under the new law, which takes effect on July 1, when someone commits a violent act against a pregnant mother that results in the loss of her unborn child, the perpetrator can be charged with murdering the child, even if the mother survives; charges for crimes against the mother may also be filed. Alabama was previously one of 18 states that did not recognize an unborn child as a victim in a crime against a when a pregnant womaan is killed. The billBrody Act is referred to as the "Brody Bill" in memory of Brody Parker, named in memory of the unborn son of 23-year-old Brandy Parker of Albertville, who was eight-and-a-half months pregnant when she was shot and killed oin July 27, 2005. The case remains unsolved. The bill passed 30-0 in the Senate and 101-0 in the House.

Education Budget
On March 29, the State House and Senate voted to override Governor Riley's veto of the education budget. The Governor had asked the Legislature to reduce the $6 billion spending plan by $60 million so the state could afford to give most state residents a tax cutin an effort to provide tax breaks to low income Alabama residents. The House voted 63- to 38 to reject his proposed amendment and 89 to -10 to override his veto. The Senate voted 26 to -9 to override the veto (essentially, a party-line vote).

IncomeNCOME TaxAX BillILL PASSES
On April 12, Governor Riley signed into law a bill to increase Alabama's income tax threshold, as it was the only state still taxing families of four earning less than $10,000. The law bill raises increases the income threshold at which Alabama starts taxing a family of four from $4,600 to $12,600 and also cuts taxes for lower- and middle-income families. Pointing to the state's budget surplus, Governor Riley had called on legislators to pass a tax cut during his State of the State Address in January. Alabama was the only state still taxing families of four earning less than $10,000.

INCREASE IN STATE IMMIGRATION ENFORCEMENT TRAINING SOUGHT
In 2003, Governor Riley signed an agreement with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security giving the state the authority tozed the use of specially trained Alabama state troopers to enforce Federal illegal immigration laws. Alabama is one of only three states in the Nation with that authority. Forty-fourTwo classes of trained Alabama state troopers (44 total) have gone through Federal immigration training; the cost of the training is covered by the Federal government, while the state pays the salaries and any travel costs incurred by state troops participating in the training. Those who successfully complete the five-week training program are authorized to arrest and detain illegal aliens and turn them over to Federal officials for deportation. arrested mMore than 160 illegal aliens have been arrested since 2003.

Governor Riley is now requesting that has asked the Federal government to provide immigration-enforcement training to another class of Alabama state troopers; to keep up with the growing need for immigration enforcement. Hhe has also directed the Alabama Department of Public Safety to assist local police departments in their efforts to receive Federal training that would allow them to addressing immigration-related issues in their communities. During the January 10 to April 17recent session, the State Legislature debated several immigration-related bills to crack down on illegal immigrants and businesses that hire themdealing with voting, property, health, and employment policies.

KEY RACES AND POLITICAL CLIMATE
PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY DATE
On April 17, the Legislature passed a bill to move the state's presidential primary from June to the first Tuesday in February, which would makeing Alabama's primary one of the first the third in the nNation behind the Iowa caucuses and the New Hampshire primary. Governor Riley has said he will supports the change and is expected to sign the bill, which was endorsed by the state chairmen of the Republican and Democratic parties.

GOVERNOR 2006
Governor Bob Riley (R) is up for re-election in 2006 and faces a primary challenge from former State Supreme Court Chief Justice Roy Moore (R) on June 6. Riley was hurt early in his term when he increased taxes, but his recent response to Hurricane Katrina has improved his standing with the public. A Mobile Register/University of South Alabama poll conducted from April 10 through April 13 showeds Riley leading Moore, 64 percent to 20 percent, among likely GOP primary voters. Riley was first elected in 2002 when he , narrowly defeateding incumbent Governor Don Siegelman (D), 49.1 percent to 48.9 percent.

While Lieutenant Governor Lucy Baxley (D) is actively seeking the Democrat her party's nomination, although she is being may face a challenged by from former Governor Siegelman, who –, despite highly publicized legal and ethics problems connected to his time as governor –, is still supported by key Democratic primary voting groups. In October 2005, Siegelman was indicted on charges of racketeering, bribery, and extortion, and his trial is set to begin on May 1. If Siegelman wins the primary and is convicted of pending Federal corruption charges, the Democrats may find themselves without a gubernatorial nominee. On HYPERLINK "http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/October_26" \o "October 26" October 26, HYPERLINK "http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/2005" \o "2005" 2005, Siegelman was indicted on charges of HYPERLINK "http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Racketeering" \o "Racketeering" racketeering, HYPERLINK "http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bribery" \o "Bribery" bribery, and HYPERLINK "http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Extortion" \o "Extortion" extortion. For example, he has been accused of selling seats on the Certificate of Need Board – the entity that issues licenses to build new hospitals and nursing homes. Governor Siegelman's trial is set to begin May 1, 2006.

A Mobile Register poll from conducted in late February showed Riley leading Siegelman, 53 percent to 27 percent, and Riley leading Baxley, 45 percent to 36 percent, among registered voters. As of January 31, Riley held a financial advantage with a reportedhad $4.5 million cash-on-hand, compared to Baxley's $1.2 million and Sieglman's $345,000.

Comment [DLS4]: Accurate as rewritten? (I think inaccurate only if Siegelman has not made up his mind on whether or not to see the nomination)

Comment [DLS5]: Accurate?

Comment [DLS6]: Are we sure about this – won't they get to pick another one through a special election or whatever?

Comment [DLS7]: Do we need to mention the other Democrats -- http://www.politics1.com/al.htm

Comment [DLS8]: Are we sure this is January 31 as opposed to December 31?

U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
All five Republican and two Democrat Congressmen are considered safe for the 2006 elections.
