

Congress of the United States
Washington, DC 20515

January 17, 2023

The Honorable Miguel A. Cardona EdD
Secretary
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, S.W.
Washington, DC 20202

Dear Secretary Cardona:

Since the beginning of the Biden Administration, we have made several requests to the Department of Education for information and documents concerning the Biden Administration's misuse of federal criminal and counterterrorism resources to target concerned parents at school board meetings. These requests remain outstanding. As we begin the 118th Congress, we write again to reiterate our outstanding requests and ask that you immediately comply in full.

The Department has been on notice about our oversight requests—and aware that the requests are outstanding—for months. For your convenience in promptly complying with our requests, we itemized our outstanding requests in a letter dated October 17, 2022. Subsequently, again for your convenience, we notified you once more about these outstanding requests in a letter dated November 18, 2022. A copy of this most recent letter, with its enclosure, is enclosed.

To date, the Department has not complied with our long-outstanding requests for information and documents. This stonewalling must stop. Accordingly, for the final time, we reiterate our outstanding requests—itemized in our letter dated November 18, 2022, and its enclosure, and incorporated herein—and ask that you provide this material immediately. The Committee is prepared to resort to compulsory process, if necessary, to obtain this material.

In addition, in our letter of November 18, 2022, we provided you with a preliminary list of Department employees from whom we require testimony to advance our oversight. We asked that you direct your staff to begin scheduling dates for the Committee to receive this testimony. Here too, the Department has ignored our requests. Please know the Committee will not be hesitant to compel testimony from Department employees if necessary.

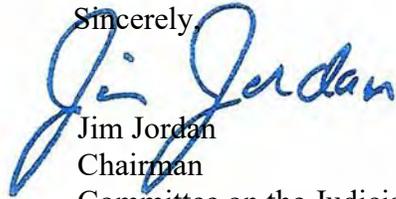

The Judiciary Committee is authorized to conduct oversight of matters involving civil liberties and criminal law pursuant to the Rules of the House of Representatives.¹

Secretary
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, S.W.
Washington, DC 20202

Dear Secretary Cardona:

As we prepare for the 118th Congress, we write again to obtain your voluntary compliance with the outstanding requests for documents and information necessary for our oversight. We appreciate your prompt attention to these outstanding matters.

Over the past twenty-one months, we have made several requests for information and documents concerning the Biden Administration's misuse of federal criminal and counterterrorism resources to target concerned parents at school board meetings. We reiterated and itemized these requests in our recent letter of October 17, 2022, which is enclosed for your convenience. To date, you have ignored these requests, or you have failed to respond sufficiently. Please be aware that if our requests remain outstanding at the beginning of the 118th Congress, the Committee may be forced to resort to compulsory process to obtain the material we require.

In addition, to advance our oversight of the Biden Administration's use of federal law enforcement with respect to school board-related threats, we may require prompt testimony from Department of Education employees in hearings or transcribed interviews, including Kimberly Watkins-Foote. We expect your unfettered cooperation in arranging for the Committee to receive testimony from Department employees. As an initial matter, we anticipate requiring testimony, in hearings or transcribed interviews, from the following employees early in the 118th Congress:

1. Kimberly Watkins-Foote, Director, National Engagement Division;
2. Larry Bowden, Senior Advisory to the Secretary; and
3. Nicholas Simmons, Special Assistant, Office of the Secretary.

To avoid any unnecessary delay in receiving the testimony of these employees, we ask that you direct your staff to work with Committee staff now on scheduling these events. Please be advised that this testimony is in addition to periodic hearings we may convene, if necessary, with

Assistant Secretary for Legislation and Congressional Affairs Gwen Graham concerning the status of outstanding requests for documents and testimony.

The congressional oversight power, rooted in Article I of the Constitution, is “broad and indispensable.”¹ This authority “encompasses inquiries into the administration of existing laws, studies of proposed law, and surveys of defects in our societal, economic, or political system for the purpose of enabling the Congress to remedy them.”² The Judiciary Committee is authorized to conduct oversight of matters involving civil liberties and criminal law enforcement pursuant to the Rules of the House of Representatives.³

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Miguel A. Cardona, EdD
Secretary
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, S.W.
Washington, DC 20202

Dear Secretary Cardona:

We are investigating the Biden Administration's misuse of federal criminal and counterterrorism resources to target concerned parents at school board meetings. We know from publicly available information that the Biden Administration, including the Education Department, colluded with the National School Boards Association to manufacture a pretext for the use of federal law-enforcement authorities against parents.¹ The American people, however, deserve much more accountability and transparency.

On November 16, 2021, we wrote to you requesting documents and information regarding your Department's interactions with the NSBA and the subsequent appointment of then-NSBA President Dr. Viola Garcia to the National Assessment Governing Board.² To date, over eleven months later, the Department has only responded with a generic, hollow response letter, and has not produced any of the requested documents or information.³ This letter did not sufficiently respond to our reasonable requests or alleviate our concerns.

Parents voicing their concerns at school board meetings are not domestic terrorists. Yet, the Attorney General's anti-parent directive of October 4, 2021, remains in effect, and as a result, the threat of federal law enforcement continues to chill the First Amendment rights of American parents. Committee Republicans intend to continue to pursue this serious misuse of federal law-enforcement resources, including if necessary into the 118th Congress. We reiterate our requests, which are itemized in the attached appendix and incorporated herein, and ask that you, as the custodian of all Departmental records, produce the entirety of the requested material as soon as
