Congress of the United States

Washington, DC 20515

March 5, 2024

Ms. Negar Tekeei Assistant U.S. Attorney United States District Court Southern District of New York 26 Federal Plaza, 37th Floor New York, NY 10278

Dear Ms. Tekeei:

The Committee on Oversight and Accountability (Oversight Committee) and the Committee on the Judiciary (Judiciary Committee, and collectively, "the Committees") are investigating whether sufficient grounds exist to draft articles of impeachment against President Biden for consideration by the full House. As a part of this impeachment inquiry, on February 23, 2024, the Committees held a transcribed interview with Jason Galanis, a former business partner of President Biden's son, Hunter Biden. Mr. Galanis is a current inmate in the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP). During his transcribed interview, Mr. Galanis made several allegations against BOP officials, including that he has been the "victim of a pattern of retribution by the Department of Justice in order to prevent my home confinement, which would have allowed full and free access to congressional investigators." The Committees are examining those allegations and will take seriously any attempt by BOP to obstruct the Committees' inquiry, including by retaliating against witnesses.

Mr. Galanis specifically alleged in his transcribed interview that he has been singled out for unequal treatment while in BOP custody after he asserted in a petition for commutation of his sentence that Hunter Biden and another business associate, Devon Archer, were complicit in the same illegal acts that landed Mr. Galanis in jail.⁴ In particular, Mr. Galanis alleged that his application for home confinement under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, which was initially approved by local BOP officials in Florida and California, was subsequently denied for political reasons.⁵ As he explained:

¹ See H.R. Res. 918, 118th Cong. (2023); Memorandum from Hon. James Comer, Chairman, H. Comm. on Oversight & Accountability, Hon. Jim Jordan, Chairman, H. Comm. on the Judiciary, & Hon. Jason Smith, Chairman, H. Comm. on Ways & Means, to H. Comm. on Oversight & Accountability, H. Comm. on the Judiciary, & H. Comm. on Ways & Means. Re: Impeachment Inquiry (Sept. 27, 2023) [Impeachment Inquiry Memorandum].

² Transcribed Interview with Jason Galanis (Feb. 23, 2024).

³ Id.

⁴ Id.

⁵ Id.

On February 4, 2023, I applied for CARES Act home confinement and went through a lengthy approval process with the warden and other officials. I was approved by the Pensacola warden and his staff and referred onward to California for placement.

Finally, on June 9, 2023, the Bureau of Prisons California staff confirmed their approval of my home confinement in an email to FPC Pensacola staff.

On June 12th, the Committee on Oversight and Accountability announced that they were issuing a subpoena to Devon Archer relating to its inquiry into Joe Biden's business dealings, which would, undoubtedly, in my mind expose the dealings of Hunter Biden, Devon Archer, and me.

On June 13th, one day after the committee announced it would subpoen a Devon Archer, my home confinement approval was reversed. I understand from a former high ranking Bureau of Prisons official that the SDNY prosecutors aggressively weighed in with the Bureau of Prisons staff to oppose my release. As a result of this DOJ intervention, I was denied home confinement.⁶

Mr. Galanis testified that the reasons stated for BOP's reversal of the approval of his home confinement shifted. According to Mr. Galanis:

I formally appealed the reversal. With each appeal stage, the BOP reason for my denial changed. For example, first, it was that there was too much time left on my sentence. This is not a valid reason for the denial.

Next, it was that the CARES Act expired on May 10, 2023. This rationale is contrived and is contradicted by the approval on June 9th, a date after the purported May 10th expiration. Moreover, the BOP policy is that all CARES Act applications submitted before May 10th were to be processed, which I witnessed firsthand with fellow inmates being released well into late summer. I was being treated differently.⁷

As shown above, the BOP provided multiple invalid and contradictory justifications for the denial. Additionally, Mr. Galanis testified that beginning in January 2023, while in BOP custody, he was the victim of sexual harassment and assault by a BOP staff member. Although Mr. Galanis notified authorities of these attacks, BOP allowed this abuse to continue until early August 2023.

In light of the allegations made during Mr. Galanis's testimony, please provide the following documents and information:

⁷ Id.

⁶ Id.

⁸ Id.

¹*u*.

⁹ Id.

- 1. All documents and communications referring or relating to Jason Galanis's application for CARES Act home confinement, including but not limited to the following:
 - a. All documents and communications between or among employees of the Bureau of Prisons, the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York, or Main Justice;
 - b. All documents and communications related to Federal Prison Camp Pensacola's approval of Jason Galanis's application for CARES Act home confinement, including its referral of Mr. Galanis's application to BOP California for placement;
 - c. All documents and communications related to BOP California's approval of Jason Galanis' application for CARES Act home confinement; and
 - d. All documents and communications referring or related to the reversal and/or denial of Jason Galanis's application for CARES Act home confinement.

Please produce this information as soon as possible but no later than 5:00 p.m. on March 19, 2024.

In addition to this information, the Committees request that you appear for a transcribed interview with Committee staff. As one of the lead prosecutors on Mr. Galanis's case, you have information critical to the Committees' oversight, including but not limited to the Southern District of New York's knowledge of and involvement in the reversal of Mr. Galanis's request for home confinement. Please schedule this transcribed interview as soon as possible but no later than 5:00 p.m. on March 19, 2024. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Committee on the Judiciary

Sincerely,

James Comer

Chairman

Committee on Oversight and Accountability

Andy Biggs

Chairman

Subcommittee on Crime and Federal Government Surveillance

Committee on the Judiciary

Ms. Negar Tekeei March 5, 2024 Page 4

cc: The Honorable Jerrold L. Nadler, Ranking Member Committee on the Judiciary

The Honorable Jamie Raskin, Ranking Member Committee on Oversight and Accountability

The Honorable Sheila Jackson Lee, Ranking Member, Subcommittee on Crime and Federal Government Surveillance, Committee on the Judiciary