

Subcommittee on Antitrust, Commercial and Administrative Law: This Subcommittee has jurisdiction over the following subject matters: bankruptcy and commercial law, bankruptcy judgeships, administrative law, independent counsel, state taxation affecting interstate commerce, interstate compacts, antitrust matters, other appropriate matters as referred by the Chairman, and relevant oversight.

Subcommittee on the Constitution, Civil Rights, and Civil Liberties: This Subcommittee has jurisdiction over constitutional rights, constitutional amendments, Federal civil rights, voting rights, claims against the United States, non-immigration private claims bills, ethics in government, tort liability, and other matters.

Subcommittee on Courts, Intellectual Property, and the Internet: This Subcommittee has jurisdiction over the Administration of the U.S. Courts, the Federal Rules of Evidence, Civil and Appellate Procedure, judicial ethics, patent, trademark law, and information technology.

Subcommittee on Crime, Terrorism, and Homeland Security: This Subcommittee has jurisdiction over the Federal Criminal Code, drug enforcement, sentencing, parole and pardons, internal and homeland security, the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, prisons, and criminal law enforcement.

Subcommittee on Immigration and Citizenship: This Subcommittee has jurisdiction over immigration and naturalization, border security, admission of refugees, treaties, conventions and international agreements, claims against the United States, federal charters of incorporation, private immigration and claims bills, and non-border enforcement.

Oversight: The House Judiciary Committee conducts regular oversight of the executive branch including the Department of Justice, the Department of Homeland Security, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, among other government agencies. Additionally, the Committee oversees many of the laws, agencies, and programs that underpin our national security infrastructure including the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act and counterterrorism efforts at the Department of Justice and the FBI. The Committee is also responsible for determining whether to recommend articles of impeachment against federal officials.